

DJ·JANIE·JANE

With a love for music and a keen affinity for timing and beats, Los Angeles based DJ Janie Jane is known for setting the vibe with her extensive knowledge and creation of custom-tailored set lists from multiple genres and eras.

Also known as Janie Van Halen, she is no stranger to the art of reinvention. With a background that includes public relations and live events promoter in the music industry as well as professional ballroom dancer, DJ Janie Jane possesses an avid appreciation and understanding of music both creatively and from a business perspective.

During the pandemic, and after the loss of several family members, DJ Janie Jane found comfort and healing in music and the art of DJing. She co-developed, produced, and performed a weekly "Live Stream Series" where she built an audience and developed a loyal following.

Shortly thereafter DJ Janie Jane began playing a variety of events. With gained confidence and popularity, she has become the go-to DJ for local event planners and has performed live at corporate, private, and club events.

Always looking forward, DJ Janie Jane is excited to share her love and knowledge of music and her ever-growing skill sets as a DJ with many more audiences to come.
